Batter than all the rest

A CHIPPY in Dagenham has been named as the best in Essex and the South East.

The Golden Fish at Fiddlers Junction, in Becontree Avenue, scooped the title of South East regional winner and Essex county winner in this year's Choice Chip Awards.

Owner Jason Aiken, who took over the chippy from his in-laws Jim and Yvonne Plows a couple of years ago, said: "I am absolutely delighted to win these two titles especially because it's the first time that we have entered the Choice Chip Awards.

"We're proud to serve such a fantastic community and consider ourselves lucky to have such wonderful customers. We can't thank them enough for voting for us."

The awards are run by The Potato Council in national Chip Week (February 17-23).

CARE HOMES 'TOP QUALITY'

By Paul Peterson

barking@yellowad.co.uk

THREE council-run care homes have been given a glowing report from inspectors.

The Gascoigne Road Care Home, Kallar Lodge and Millicent Preston House have been assessed during unannounced visits by the Care Quality Commission (CQC).

The inspectors said all three care homes were providing good quality services for residents and that the facilities met every single standard they were judged against.

Councillor Linda Reason, cabinet member for adult services, said: "I am so pleased that these independent inspection reports highlight the good work being done to provide these essential services to some of our most vulnerable older people.

"The judgement is a testament to the quality of service provided in the homes and our commitment to improving the health and wellbeing of all our residents.

The Gascoigne Road Care Home, which was providing care for eight adults with learning disabilities at the time, was rated as providing 'safe and suitable' premises.

Inspectors said that staff at Kallar Lodge had a good rapport with the 37 elderly residents at the home while Millicent Preston House was judged to be clean and well maintained and noted for its additional living room and en-suite shower facilities.

Cllr Reason added: "I'd like to praise the staff who work in all three homes for their continued hard work. It is the staff's passion and dedication to helping those they care for that makes such a positive contribution to improving quality of life."

Adoption team in search of suitable parents

PEOPLE across east London are being urged to attend an adoption open evening.

The adoption team at Waltham Forest Council is looking for people from a range of background to become adoptive parents whether or not they live in the borough.

Ninety four per cent of adoptions in Waltham Forest are approved including same sex couples, single parents and residents who rent rather than own their own homes.

Councillor Clare Coghill, cabinet member for children and young people, said: "We want to dispel some of the myths around adoption and show people that a loving home can come in many forms. You don't have to live in Waltham Forest to adopt with us so we also want to hear from people living in surrounding boroughs."

Prospective adopters who attend one of the open evenings will get the chance to hear directly from children and parents about their experiences of the adoption process.

The open evenings take place at Waltham Forest Council, Forest Road, Walthamstow, E17 4JL starting from 6.15pm on Wednesday, March 19 and on Thursday, May 8.

No booking is required and visitors should simply turn up at one of the open evenings.

Super paramedics

A TEAM of super paramedics has been appointed by the London Ambulance Service.

The 12 advanced paramedics will receive additional training and will respond to the most serious one to two per cent of life-threatening incidents in the capital from May.

The new team will particularly treat patients who are suffering from cardiac arrest, continuous fits or people who are difficult to take to hospital. The super paramedics will also be able to administer more powerful drugs currently only given by doctors.

Mark Whitbread, director of paramedic education and development, said: "We are very keen to develop the paramedic profession, but there is a lot more we can do by developing our paramedics as really skilled clinicians. We believe that appointing advanced paramedics shows our determination to do better for patients and staff."

The advanced paramedics will have to undergo intensive training including a four day trauma course and an advanced paramedic science course at Hertfordshire University.

Clinical team leader, Chelsey Pike, has been chosen as one of the super paramedics.

She said: "I thought it was a new and exciting opportunity and I'm all for developing my career. The service is pioneering in terms of training and drugs trials and I think this will keep us at the forefront. It's also a great promotional opportunity that allows clinicians to remain largely clinical, rather than go into a managerial role."

The London Ambulance Service is planning to recruit another 24 super paramedics.

If you are a registered paramedic and would like more information about joining the London Ambulance Service call the recruitment team on 020 3069 0260.

Community heroes

THREE community heroes are set to be honoured by Barking and Dagenham Council.

John Davis will be made an Honorary Alderman after serving for more than 40 years as a local councillor.

Daniel O'Sullivan will be awarded the Freedom of the Borough for his work at the Dagenham Amateur Boxing Club while Glenda Paddle will received the same title for her work as chair of governors at Furze Infant School and Warren Junior School.

Arson reduction

THE number of arsons in London has fallen by nearly 90 per cent in the last 10 years.

NOW EVEN BETTER: Youngsters at the Gascoigne Youth and Community Centre in Barking relaunch the Street Base Card

Points make (cool) prizes

A FREE reward scheme to encourage young people to get out and about has been relaunched.

The Street Base Card – run by Barking and Dagenham Council – rewards youngsters for taking part in positive activities such as attending a youth club or enjoying a sport at a leisure centre.

The scheme, which was relaunched at the Gascoigne Youth and Community Centre in Barking last week, is similar to a Sainsbury Nectar Card or Tesco Clubcard with youngsters building up points.

The points can be exchanged for prizes including art sets, mountain bikes and tablet computers.

Phil Oldershaw, from the council, said: “We are really pleased to be relaunching the scheme, which is now also offering points if young people see a show at The Broadway Theatre in Barking. We hope that the Street Base Card will encourage youngsters to do more activities after school.”

The card is for youngsters from 11 to 19-years-old living or studying in the borough.

Everyone who registers with the free scheme will be given 50 points as a welcome gift.

For more information about the StreetBase Card visit www.streetbase.info

Never too old to learn

OLDER people are getting to grips with new technology thanks to several innovative projects.

Residents at the George Mason Lodge, in Chelmsford Road, Leytonstone, are learning how to use Skype, Facebook and using technology to rediscover old memories and connect with their families. The project is just one of number of schemes run by Waltham Forest Council that were celebrated by more than 200 residents, carers and volunteers at the I Can in Waltham Forest event last Friday.

Councillor Angie Bean, cabinet member for adults, said: "It's amazing how a bit of imagination can transform lives especially older residents with dementia or memory loss. Something as simple as a docking station can help a someone with a hearing impairment communicate with their relatives."

The council is also using new technology at MarkHouse Road Day Centre to help adults with learning disabilities learn how to mix music so they can pursue their dream career as a DJ.

Cllr Bean added: "It is great to see how technology can also help people express themselves if they have a condition that makes it hard for them to communicate in more conventional ways."

Grace Chandler officially opened the I Can event via Skype from the comfort of her own armchair.

The 103-year-old, who lives at George Mason, became an internet sensation last year with 80,000 likes on Facebook and 1,000 retweets on Twitter after knitting lots of hats for a charity campaign.

A DISTRAUGHT family is desperate to trace missing Walthamstow man.

Detectives in Waltham Forest are appealing help to find Stuart McCulloch, 56, who has not been seen since leaving home at around 12:30pm last Monday.

His family and police are becoming concerned for his welfare, police say.

Mr McCulloch is white, 6ft tall, of a large build and light brown hair. He was last seen wearing a plain green shirt, cream trousers, black leather shoes and black, knee-length Parka-style rain coat. Police said the missing man has strong links to Hull and is a frequent visitor to York.

Anyone who has seen him or who has any information about Mr McCulloch's whereabouts should contact officers at Chingford Police Station on 101 or call the Missing People charity on 116 000.

Fancy fries are a burning issue

POSH chips are being blamed for a 14 per cent increase in chip pan fires in London.

Latest figures from the London Fire Brigade reveal there were 370 chip pan fires across the capital in 2013 – the highest in five years – compared to 318 in 2012.

The brigade said the increase could be due

DANGERS: A controlled chip pan fire demo by the fire service

Chip tips...

- Keep an eye on the pan at all times
- Avoid alcohol if you are frying
- Don't move a burning pan
- Never put water into a flaming chip pan – you will create a huge fire ball
- If safe to do so, turn off the heat
- Get out, call 999

the risk increases when you start frying several things at once.

“All it can take is for you to become distracted for a few seconds and your cooking oil can quickly go up in flames.”

Figures from the London Fire Brigade show an overall 25 per cent reduction in fires over the past year, but the number of chip pan fires in the capital bucks the trend.

The statistics also revealed that there were 1,754 chip pan fires in London in the past five years. More than 500 people were injured and three people lost their lives.

Fire officer Dave Brown said: “Many people think chip pans are a thing of the past, but there’s been a rise in celebrities like Heston Blumenthal endorsing posh chips on TV programmes. Chip pans and cooking with hot oil can be really dangerous and

Council tax frozen again

FREEZING council tax for the sixth year running have been given the go-ahead.

In Barking and Dagenham, it will remain at £1,016.40 for the average Band D property. The level was agreed by councillors last week.

Deputy council leader Rocky Gill, cabinet member for finance, said: “We are committed to ensuring that, whenever we can, residents don’t suffer any council tax increase.

“This is particularly important when fuel, food and bills continue to rise, putting greater pressure on residents. This council tax freeze recognises households of all sizes and circumstances are being squeezed tighter and tighter by the economic climate.”

Council officers will now work out what cutbacks are needed to meet the local authority’s estimated £165million budget for 2014/15.

But Mr Gill added: “We will do our best to protect front-line services while accounting for every penny we spend.”

The council’s funding from the Government has been cut by £55m since 2010 and will be reduced by £11.2m in 2014/15 and a further £19.2m in 2015/16.

Rents will go up 1.9 per cent, equivalent to £1.69 a week, with a 13 per cent reduction of around £3.49 per week in service charges.

Is it time to Neuter?

Once your pet is six months of age it is a good idea as part of a preventative health care scheme to get your pet neutered.

Why neuter your pet?

Neutering is mainly recommended for medical benefits and should not change your pets' character, but may help with certain undesirable traits such as aggression, dominant behaviour and the desire to roam.

Your female pet's risk of mammary cancer is very low if she is spayed before her first season, and she will be spared the risk of post season complications such as life threatening womb infections that can occur after any season.

The hassle involved with bitches when they are in season is also taken away, as well as the mess. Some bitches even need to be kept house bound due to the unwanted attention from male dogs when out which can be frustrating for both dog and owner.

Male dogs become less interested in females in season once they themselves have been neutered. Castration can also dramatically reduce the risk of certain types of cancer including testicular and prostate cancer.

And of course neutering is the best way to prevent any unwanted pregnancies!

So what does having your pet neutered involve?

If your pet is female it is spayed removing both ovaries and the uterus. If your pet is male it is castrated removing both testicles.

Both procedures require a general anaesthetic, which carries a very small risk of complications at a young age. The length of time the operation takes will depend on whether your pet is a cat, dog or rabbit, as well as what breed and size it is.

These procedures require a days' stay at the vets, your pet is admitted in the morning and discharged the same day. They may need to return to the vets for post-operative checks and for stitches to be removed, but recovery usually takes just a few days to a week.

Paid-for police make their 1,000th arrest

By Paul Peterson

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

A TENANT-funded policing team has made its 1,000th arrest since its launch nearly two years ago.

The estate team, which works alongside housing officers from Barking and Dagenham Council, has made arrests for burglary, robbery, car crime and drug offences, since its launch in May 2012.

They even intervened in a kidnapping, arrested gang members behind a cannabis factory, resolved cases of anti-social behaviour in problem families and dealt with cases of on street prostitution.

Cllr Jeanne Alexander, cabinet member for crime, justice and communities, said: "The estate team work has been vital. They have significantly reduced a number of issues on our estates and their presence is reducing the fear of crime and acting as a deterrent for potential criminals".

The estates team – which is funded by fifty-fifty by the Metropolitan Police and Barking and Dagenham Council's housing service – consists of two police sergeants and 20 police constables.

The officers not only undertake day-to-day patrols around the housing council's estates but they also take part in joint patrols with the existing noise enforcement officers and the council's tenancy enforcement team.

Superintendent Mike Hamer said: "This team are dedicated to improving the quality of life for residents.

"They provide a high-quality service instrumental in securing court convictions and reducing crime and anti-social behaviour. The team is a shining example of what can be achieved in partnership."

BEATLEMANIA: The Bentley owned by Beatles manager Brian Epstein is up for sale

He owned it, yeah, yeah, yeah!

By Mike Torpey

THE Bentley S3 once owned by Beatles manager Brian Epstein could sell for £70,000 at auction next month.

The car, first registered 50 years ago on February 18, 1964, was Epstein's first brand-new Bentley and still bears the original AJB 400B registration number.

It is estimated that Epstein, known as 'Mr 25 Per Cent' due to his cut of The Beatles' gross income, earned £75 million in today's money and spent some of it on buying this car to replace his second-hand Bentley S1.

He ordered it in late 1963, with some assistance from the Beatles' press officer Derek Taylor. The car was then collected from the dealer by Taylor and Lonnie Trimble, Epstein's valet/chauffeur, as he was in the USA with the group.

On February 22, 1964, The Beatles and Brian returned to the UK after appearing on the Ed Sullivan show and Taylor and Trimble were at Heathrow airport to collect Epstein in the new Bentley. Interviewed by Pathe News and asked "The four of you are going to be millionaires. Have you got time to actually spend this money?" the Beatles replied in unison: "What money?" And in response to: "Doesn't he [Brian Epstein] give any to you?" George Harrison retorted: "No, no. Have you seen that car of his?"

Two years later Epstein sold the car to a company called Sidney J. Dicks Ltd, while subsequent owners include a London solicitor and Norman Boyack, a theatrical agent.

In the same ownership for more than 25 years, the S3 comes with a thick history file, detailing a bare metal re-spray as well as piston ring replacement and engine overhaul. The file also has copies of the original history sheet and chassis listing, DVLA and previous-owner correspondence, copies of press cuttings, a copy of the owner's manual plus some expired MoTs and tax discs.

The car is currently taxed and MoT'd, and includes a tool kit with jack and spare wheel, though the original radio has been converted to one that receives the FM signal.

Chris Routledge, of auctioneers Coys, who will be selling the car at their Spring Classics auction in London on March 11, estimates it will fetch between £40,000 and £70,000.

Call Coys on 020 8614 7888.

WIN PUTS O'S BACK ON TOP

Leyton Orient 2
Swindon Town 0
Sky Bet League One
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON ORIENT reclaimed top spot after Lloyd James's brace of penalties saw them home to back-to-back wins over the lacklustre Robins last Saturday.

Having beat bottom club, Stevenage by the same scoreline in mid-week, the O's were looking to kick on with their closest rivals battling it out at Griffin Park. Thanks to Brentford slipping up against Wolves, the O's leapfrogged the Bees - although second place Wolves have two games in hand.

But the east Londoners had to be patient before James finally fired home on the stroke of half-time.

Against a side with play-off aspirations, the O's endured a frustrating first 42 minutes with Chris Dagnall and Moses Odubajo coming closest - but both lacked that killer touch in front of goal.

Dagnall stretched, but couldn't make decent contact to David Mooney's 20th minute cross - and despite beating Wes Foderingham, the ball rebounded back off the far post.

Then, Odubajo - no stranger to the scoresheet this term - blazed wide on 37 minutes from close range, after Dagnall had won possession.

Orient - however - edged ahead on the stroke of half-time when Odubajo got on marker, Jamie Reckord's blindside and won a penalty from the clumsiest of challenges. James then showed his wasteful colleagues the way with a confident penalty kick that sent Tyrell Belford the wrong way to send a relieved home crowd wild.

The O's were never going to surrender their lead after the break, but were soon helped by another needless penalty award when Troy Archibald-Henville floored Mooney with a challenge that wouldn't have looked out of place in rugby's Six Nations. And, again James was on target from the spot, driving the ball into the centre of the goal, with Belford again going the wrong way.

Orient then underlined their superiority by twice having the ball in the net, only for marginal decisions to deny Mooney and Dagnall from turning the scoreline into a rout.

Boss, Russell Slade, said: "The important thing was to get the win and it was all about us getting the performance and wanting it a little bit more than the opposition. I thought we were well worth the three points.

"The good thing was we were creating chances all afternoon. Without the ball we were excellent. But, we had that difficult period [at the start of the month] and we have come through. We've now made it two back-to-back wins - which is really encouraging."

Despite the O's reclaiming top spot, Slade warned: "What we must do now is to concentrate on each and every performance. Before today there were 42 points to play for, now it's 39 and we've got to fight for every single one of them if we are going to get where we want to be."

Matchwinner, James, admitted: "You have to be confident to step up and take a penalty - lucky enough I scored two today. As a team we were solid with and without the ball as Swindon are a very good footballing side. Back-to-back wins and the point at Preston after three defeats is 'massive' and it's a great seven points we've got."

Town boss and former Orient midfielder, Mark Cooper, added: "I didn't think there was too much danger in the first-half and it was a ridiculous tackle that gives them a penalty just before half-time - which obviously gives them the ascendancy. For the first 20 minutes of the second-half we weren't very good and when it goes down to 2-0 we start to play a little bit - but you can't make two challenges like we did - and give two penalties away - and expect to win games."

■ Orient entertain Colchester United this Saturday (kick-off 3pm).

Tough weekend for Skril clubs

Non-League round up by Brian Jeeves

IT was a weekend of disappointment for the regions Skril Conference South clubs with both Chelmsford City and Concord Rangers crashing to home defeats.

City were beaten 3-0 at Melbourne Stadium by Maidenhead United. The visitors took control, scoring twice in the opening 15 minutes through Solomon and Grant.

Despite a spirited second half from the Clarets, a last minute strike from Constant wrapped up a comprehensive victory for the visitors. And it was two first half goals from Bishops Stortford that undid Concord Rangers at the Aspect Arena. Francis and an own goal from Goodacre compounded the Beach Boys' misery.

In the Ryman Premier Division, Canvey Island were the big winners, crushing local rivals Grays Athletic by four goals to one.

George Purcell snatched an early goal for AFC Hornchurch at Bognor Regis Town. However, the home side levelled midway through the second half through Oliver Pearce to grab a share of the spoils, while East Thurrock United were well beaten, 3-0 at in-form Dulwich Hamlet.

There wasn't much joy for our clubs in the Ryman North. Tilbury went down 1-0 at AFC Sudbury while Brentwood Town scored through Alex Akrofi but visitors Needham Market won 3-1.

Heybridge Swifts were involved in an entertaining affair at Erith & Belvedere, but eventually went down 3-2, and it was the same score line at Soham Town Rangers where a last minute goal sunk Burnham Ramblers who netted through Mark Sission and Billy Hunt.

Maldon & Tiptree drew 2-2 with Barkingside, Bobbie Port and Charlie Liddiard finding the net for æSide. Redbridge drew 1-1 with Cheshunt and there were no goals in the game between Witham Town and Romford. There was better news for Thurrock, who beat Wroxham 2-1 at Ship Lane, and Aveley, won triumphed by the same score at Waltham Forest.

Local fans finally had some Essex Senior League action to chew the fat over. Great Wakering Rovers returned to the top of the table after a hard fort derby win over Southend Manor. A penalty from Aaron Baldwin along with a Antonio Mehmeti strike put Rovers in command, but Manor hit back in the second period through Charlie Little to ensure a grandstand finish at Burroughs Park.

Clapton's supporters are still scratching their heads in disbelief over the bizarre sacking of coach Neil Day. But the Tons continued to upset the league's in-form teams by taking a point off highflying Enfield 1893 at the Old Spotted Dog. In fact, it could have been even better for Clapton had Junior's stoppage time spot kick not cancelled out Sam Omojola's early opener.

A hat trick from Nyanga helped London APSA to an entertaining 4-2 win at Barking, while in form Tower Hamlets were held 1-1 at FC Romania.

Sawbridgeworth Town won 2-0 at Ilford, and Eton Manor clinched a tight encounter at Takeley by 2-1.

There were hard earned draws for Basildon United and Bowers & Pitsea. The Bees game at Sporting Bengal United ended 2-2. Angelo Ogunseye grabbed both Basildon goals while Sporting Bengal finished the game with nine-men following two red cards. George Smith found the net for Bowers, whose visit to Stansted finished 1-1.

A few more games managed to beat the weather in the Essex Olympian League. Pick of the action was in Senior Division Two where a brace each from Jack Main and Tom Wright helped Basildon Town to a 4-3 success at Toby FC.

Frankie chosen for Colleges under 19s

Football

A STUDENT will represent his country for the England Colleges under-19s team

Frankie Holland, 16, from Hornchurch, was chosen to play for England after being encouraged to try out for the team by his tutors at Barking & Dagenham College.

The teenage midfielder has now flown out to Italy where he will play against teams from Italy, Malta, and San Marino in a international tournament on his 17th birthday.

He said: "Going through the trials was tough because there was a lot of competition for positions on the team, but I've been really well supported by my college tutors, family and friends. To put on the England shirt for the first time felt really good."

Frankie has enjoyed football since the age of eight and has played for teams including Millwall FC and Leyton Orient FC before joining Barking and Dagenham College.

He is currently studying sport at the college in Dagenham Road, Romford, through its football academy, which is run in partnership with Dagenham and Redbridge FC.

Woodford boys tackle the wind to get better of Cheshunt

Rugby

Under 15s Woodford 29 Cheshunt 14

ON a windy Sunday morning Woodford took on Cheshunt team from the Herts/Middlesex league; the game played on a surprisingly good surface at Woodford's Roding Lane pitch.

From the kick off the wind showed it was going to be issue as the kick off drifted into touch.

From the scrum restart Woodford showed their intent with a powerful and sold drive from the front five of Mick Chamberlain, William Tindall, Calum Levy, Max Venditti and Euan Fay. Woodford took the initiative and moved the ball quickly down the back line brushing aside the opposition.

Further Woodford pressure led to the opening try as a cross field kick by Alex Marks was cleanly collected by Michael Batt on the wing. With still some work to do Batt burst through the defence to cross over the try line. The conditions were always likely to prove difficult for kicking and the conversion drifted beyond the posts.

The Woodford scrum was in form and dominated an opposition that had some big units but were under the cosh. Tindall continued his good hooking form securing clean ball for Woodford.

A number of promising positions were compromised as Woodford came up offside too often. The penalty count increased against the home team and Woodford had to adjust their approach.

The strong wind made handling difficult as Woodford were too ambitious and produced too many errors. Scrum half Tom Mead kept a steady stream of ball to the backs but the continued pressure by Woodford in the rucking and mauling could not be translated into points.

A switch to the wing by Will Carey nearly paid dividends but solid tackling by Cheshunt contained the threat. On the other wing AJ Hamilton had made a number of strong runs and he was rewarded by a move that saw him cross the line for the second try, which was converted by Marks.

Woodford continued to dominate and the play rarely moved out of the Cheshunt 22. However, for all the possession Woodford were not clinical enough in the final move and opportunities were missed to add to the score.

Woodford continued to press and the rewards came with Will Curness finishing of an interchange of passes between himself and Dan Farrelly that moved the ball swiftly and aggressively to cross the line on the right wing. Marks converted, 19 - 0.

With a large squad available for selection Woodford made wholesale changes for the second half. Their dominance continued with the new look team working well together.

As the half progressed Cheshunt began to gain in confidence and the home team began to tire. However, this brought out the solid defensive skills of Woodford, tackles by Andrew Whiting, Sean Moore, Batt and Bailey Francis saw them repulse the attackers.
